Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Opinions of the Press and of Eminent Public Men on the Importance of Our Mineral Resources: And the Advantages to Be Derived From the Establishment of a National School of Mines The democratic doctrine is, that the country which is governed least, is governed best; and ultra democrats, like Gerret Smith, have followed this theory so far as to proclaim that the only function of government is the police function, and, from that standpoint, to include in one common condemnation free schools, the postal system, river, harbor and canal improvements, coast surveys, agricultural, patent and scientific bureau, and, in short, everything not directly necessary for the maintenance of peace and the prevention or punishment of crime. Statesmen, however, do not attempt to apply the theories of philosophers with such relentless consistency. They recognize the fact that many things must be done by government which would otherwise not be done at all; that the interests of education, industry and commerce in every part of a nation are of vital importance to the whole people, and that a wise discretion in such matters is better than blind adherence to any political rule. Of course, it is difficult to draw the line between judicious and injudicious legislation in these directions. It is always easier to be consistent than to be wise. There is no general standard which can be applied: every case must be judged upon its own merits; and full and thorough discussion must give the answer to two all-important questions; first, is the proposed end which concerns the whole nation, or only a part of it? and second, can the benefit desired be obtained as well,...
