BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 24 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the adequacy of medical supply inventories at Army hospitals deployed during the Persian Gulf conflict. GAO found that: (1) 10 of the 15 hospitals reviewed reported shortages of some medical supplies during Operation Desert Storm; (2) the extent of shortages experienced by the hospitals could not be determined due to incomplete and inconsistent data; (3) the Army's policy restricting the use of war reserve stocks for contingencies limited the release of medical supplies during the Persian Gulf conflict; (4) the Army deployed medical supplies that were only available within the Defense Personnel Support Center wholesale supply system; (5) commercial medical suppliers filed most requisitions during the Persian Gulf conflict; (6) the Army plans to fully stock a number of hospitals and at least one medical supply center with medical supplies to ensure rapid deployment; and (7) the Army plans to reduce the number of stockpiles to support regional contingencies and revise the accountability and management policies for its war reserve program. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
