Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Perfect Peace: Letters-Memorial of the Late John Warren Howell It was only in April last year that this little volume first appeared. Already eight thousand copies have A been sold. Many most interesting proofs of its use fulness have reached the ears, and gladdened the heart, of the author. And although the price is so small, the great extent the sale has secured a considerable pecuniary benefit to Mrs. Howell and her children. The objects for which the publication was undertaken have thus, by the blessing of God, been accomplished with a rapidity, and to an amount of success, far surpassing the most sanguine anticipations.
