TASCHEN, 2014. Book Condition: Nuevo. Puro físico Viaje al interior del cuerpo humano Del excéntrico museo La Specola en Florencia llega esta sorprendente colección de figuras de cera que representan la anatomía humana en toda su deslumbrante complejidad. Esta obra ofrece una selección de cuerpos de cera y estudios de partes y órganos del cuerpo de la colección del museo: varios esqueletos, la estructura de las venas, los órganos, los nervios, las arterias y los delicados poros de la piel. Mediante todos esos detalles el cuerpo humano aparece cartografiado con meticulosidad y exactitud. Los textos, que explican la anatomía humana en términos profanos y exploran el significado histórico y cultural de las figuras de cera, completan esta «experiencia total del cuerpo».
