The society also has lately acquired the Harlow House on Sandwich Street, an extremely interesting house of the first colonial period. It was built in 1677 by William Harlow, and was framed with timber from the Old Fort on Burial Hill, then being dismantled at the end of King Philip s War. These old beams, which still show traces of their original use, are to be seen in the two principal rooms, where simple restorations have already been made. As soon as sufficient funds can be raised, the Society plans to complete the restoration of the house, as an example of the early homes of the Old Colony. to their great Detriment, not only in looks, but speaking both in Public and Private: H5 This is to inform all such, that they may have them replaced with false ones, that looks as well as the Natural, and answers the End of Speaking to all intents by PAUL REVERE, Goldsmith, near the head of Dr. Clark s Wharf, Boston, --All persons who have had false Teeth fixt by Mr. John Baker, SurgeonDentist, and they have got loose (as they will in Time) may have them fastened by the above who learnt the Method of fixing them from Mr. Baker.--Boston News-Letter, Aug. 25, 1768.--Mrs. George R.
