Excerpt: . . . 11 advertised as alcohol-free, but in reality they are venues where ec-stasy and other drugs are openly sold. Now, I want to reiterate - and I will be brief; I see the red light is on - there is no single solution to this very complex challenge that we face. This is going to take entire communities working to-gether and realizing that it is everyones responsibility. Personally, for my part, on the demand side I volunteer in the Boy Scouts of Americas law enforcement Explorer program and in traditional scouting, and I see firsthand how dedicated prevention strategies can positively affect our youth. Parents, teachers, reli-gious community leaders, as well as law enforcement play a vital role in our National drug prevention strategy. I mentioned earlier that DEAs primary mission is law enforce-ment. Education, prevention, and treatment are long-term solu-tions, and...
