Eminent divines, to whom the Church looked for interpretation, were found to differ, and the Church was thrown into confusion. Truth seemed to conflict with truth. Denominational differences are the outcome. The world is not able to see that the Churches, having common feuds and conflicting interests, speak with one voice upon the profoundest of all questions. So faith is lost in the Churches and in their Book. We can never feel that the kingdom of heaven is making due speed until the Churches learn that old maxim: In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, charity. Again, we may account for this want of implicit faith in the Bible by the fact that we are living in a scientifically peculiar age--an age when investigation knows no sacred precincts. The holy of holies is but vulgar ground beneath its feet. Every thing must be...
