Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Mary Sisney s memoir loosely fits several genres: 1) The American dreamer s story of how she survived personal struggles and overcame socio-economic barriers to achieve success 2) The popular teacher s description of her classroom experiences 3) The pre-civil rights era Southern black person s story of experiences with racism 4) The nonwhite woman s narrative of experiences with institutional sexism and racism 5) The baby boomer s description of experiences with the cultural, sexual, and socio-political revolutions of the 1960 s and 70 s. She also feels that being a black woman in predominantly white institutions gives her a perspective that most other teachers don t have, and that perspective is...
